About twenty-five members of the Rebekah lodge of this city drove to Baxter Monday night to surprise the members of their sister lodge and had a most enjoyable time. The Galena team made a display drill at the lodge room, after which the Baxter sisters, who are ever ready for an emergency, conducted the visitors to the hotel where elegant refreshments were served. The Galena lodge went over to surprise their neighbors, but were themselves surprised at the courteous treatment they received.—Galena Post.

The city of Glasgow, Scotland, comes very nearly being the consummation of the socialistic idea as far as the public ownership of public utilities goes. They own their own waterworks, street railroads, electric lights, and insurances, and such has been the success that the profits are paying all taxes, and the municipality have announced that next year no taxes will be levied. Year before last the street railroads made a profit of $100,000, and last year $200,000. The rate on the street railroads is one cent per half mile with special rates for working men going further. The city is divided into half mile districts.

Nearly everybody in Columbus is looking forward to the time when the Baxter reunion shall begin. There is scarcely a man, woman or child within our city but who attends the big reunion at least one day in the week, and many who have tents go prepared to stay the entire time. We understand there is some likelihood of our excellent Citizens Band being employed to furnish music for the occasion. We think the committee on music—when everything is taken into consideration—should give the Columbus band the job, for what city in this section contributes as much to Baxter's crowd as does Columbus? Not so, however, with Baxter people coming here. The Baxter people who attended the Old Settlers' Reunion here last week could easily have been counted on your fingers. Notwithstanding the fact that Baxter never helps swell a crowd in Columbus, Columbus people always turn out in large numbers to the big reunion. Such will be the case this year, and during that week Columbus will be all but deserted.—Advocate.

THE SIXTEENTH ANNUAL.

The Big Reunion Will Begin Two Weeks From Next Monday.

The Sixteenth Annual Inter-State Reunion of the surviving soldiers and sailors of the late war, which will be held at Camp Logan, Baxter Springs, from August 30 to September 4, inclusive, will be the biggest ever held in the United States, the national encampment alone excepted. More accommodations than ever before have been asked for, and in addition to the large number of tents the association has always had, 372 tents have been secured from the United States government. These tents were used at Springfield, Mo., this week at the Wilson Creek reunion. They will be shipped from Springfield, Mo., on the 16th inst., and with the association and private tents there will be in neighborhood of 1500.

The sale of privileges has been exceptionally large this year, and in fact everything indicates that the crowd will be away in excess of former years.

Camp Logan has received a thorough renovating, the water system is in excellent shape, the best of order will be maintained, and people coming to the big reunion will be as safe as in the seclusion of their homes.

There will be a superabundance of noted speakers this year, glee clubs, military and other bands will be plentiful, and everything within the power of the association will be done to entertain the vast throng.

Get ready to spend a whole week at Baxter Springs during the big reunion.

THE ELECTRIC ROAD.

Everything now indicates that the electric line will positively be built, and from Baxter Springs to Joplin, too, via Lowell, Galena, Empire City and Cave Springs. Every dollar necessary to build and equip the entire line is assured; in fact it is in sight.

A meeting of the company is being held in Galena just as we go to press.

A News representative was in Galena Tuesday and while there a Galena merchant said: "Are you going to publish the REUNION DAILY NEWS this year?" We assured him that we would, to which he replied: "Do you know that it is the best advertising medium in the Southwest? Why, let me tell you. I know of people, and lots of them, who have a copy of every issue of that little paper. When they want to know what happened at some particular reunion all they have to do is to refer to their files and find out. If I lived and was doing business in Baxter you and I would have trouble if I couldn't have at least half a page in that paper during reunion week. Dodgers and hand bills are all right sometimes, but they won't do a man any good in a crowd that bunches up for a week. Can I have a half page in your daily this year?" We told him he could not, whereupon we came very near getting into trouble.

We guarantee the baking powder called "Perfect" strictly pure. No indigestion. We sell it 25c per lb. Every body can use it now. Call for "Perfect." Cooper & Hodgkins.

A BIG BLAZE.

A $423,000 Fire in Baxter Springs Thursday Evening.

Baxter Springs had the biggest fire in her history Thursday evening, and although O. L. Sparks and Bunk Moore, two of the warmest inhabitants of Galena, were in the city at the time, the fire was not charged to them.

It was made with a few matches and 150 old bonds of $1,000 each, which, with the accrued interest for 27 years, amounted to about $423,000. At the term of the United States court held early last spring an arrangement was made whereby the city of Baxter Springs was to issue $10,000 in bonds to take up this enormous indebtedness. At the spring election this arrangement was ratified. General C. W. Blair, attorney for the bondholders, came down Thursday evening and delivered the old bonds to the city council, taking in exchange the new bonds. The members of the city council immediately took the old bonds into the street and burned them.

WOMAN'S WORST ENEMY—Is woman. This is an old saying, but it's as true today as it ever was. Let a woman, no matter how good or how virtuous, look sidewise or laugh while talking to a gentleman and she will be immediately talked about by a set of women of the "holier than thou" sort. If a woman tries to be cheerful or mirthful, or sees something humorous once in a while and smiles at it, at once there is a great wagging of the tongues of scandal and she is made to suffer. We are sorry to say that Baxter Springs has a few of these scandal mongers, who rejoice in defaming some woman's character, some who are ever on the alert for a chance to attack somebody's character with their tongues. We have in mind about a dozen of these self-constituted critics as we write. And we want to say right here that they should be ostracised by society for a while and in such a manner that they should know why. Let a man make slighting remarks about a woman and he is liable to get deeply into trouble, yet these "holier than thou" people may talk and roll scandal under their tongues—unfounded scandal—and nothing is done about it. Their victims, however, must necessarily suffer. Down with the scandal mongers.

A PLEASANT AFFAIR. On Thursday evening of this week Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Eastham gave a party in honor of Miss Nellie Stewart of Webb City at their nice home on North street. Delicious refreshments were served and the evening was spent in social conversation, music and games. Those present were Misses Ruby Willis, Ollie Weaver, Gay Chew, May McDonald, Jessie Cooper, Birdie Tucker and Nellie Stewart, and Murray Perkins, Harry March, Geo. McDonald, Fred Urick, George Connor, Warren Felt and Walter Michener.

COUNTY CONVENTIONS. The Democratic county convention will be held in Columbus on Tuesday, Aug. 24, 1897. Baxter will be entitled to eight delegates—five from the first ward and three from the second. The People's party convention will be held at Columbus on Wednesday, Sept. 15. Offices to be filled at the fall election are: Treasurer, sheriff, register of deeds, county clerk, surveyor, coroner and commissioner from the second district.

REUNION MUSIC. The music committee of the Inter-State Reunion Association met on Wednesday morning and employed the Columbus band to furnish music during the big reunion. The contest was between Girard and Columbus, but the bid of the Columbus band was $30 lowest. Some of the committee wanted the Girard band because it was here last year free of charge for two days. The Girard band makes fine music and its members are perfect gentlemen, but the difference of $30 was a business proposition that could not be overlooked.

CUT THE WEEDS. The attention of our citizens and the city council in particular is called to the fact that there is going to be a great big reunion of old soldiers, sailors and their friends held in Baxter Springs beginning Monday, August 30. Their attention is called to the further fact that there is a rank growth of weeds all over the town. The aforesaid rank growth of weeds should be cut. Don't delay this matter. It should be attended to at once.

The fullbloods won at the election held in the Cherokee nation last week. The fullbloods are bitterly opposed to allotment. The people of Miami have become greatly disgusted with their mail service, and if things don't take a change, will ask for the resumption of the star route between this place and Baxter Springs. As it is, the train gets in anywhere between 6 and 10 o'clock at night, which is very inconvenient as we only have one mail a day. If the star route to Fairland had not been discontinued it wouldn't be so bad. The people of Miami should make an effort to get the route to Fairland re-established and the people of that place also should put forth an effort, as it now takes two days for mail to travel between the two places, a distance of nine miles.—Miami Herald.

Oscar McDowell, he of Columbus Courier fame, was in town Wednesday morning looking after matters pertaining to the big reunion which begins here two weeks from next Monday and lasts a week. We have received official information that Oscar will be Col. Weldy's adjutant during the reunion. Oscar is the right man for that job.

John Fleming, who is charged with selling whiskey to Indians, and against whom a true bill was found by the federal grand jury at Fort Scott, was taken into custody Wednesday morning by Deputy United States Marshal John Jones and taken to Fort Scott. Morris King, Fleming's partner in crime, pleaded guilty to selling whiskey to Indians and received a sentence of three months in jail. He is doing penance now.

A number of the old comrades are getting ready to make their annual pilgrimage to the Baxter Springs Reunion. To repay them in part for the many duets expended with the ring stand, muscle and lung testers, red lemonade, snake tents, fat woman shows, and other larks too numerous to mention, they are planning a museum of relics and abnormalities under one large tent.—Altamont correspondent in Oswego Independent.

A Nebraska editor visited the village school and was greatly impressed with the school marm. On reaching his sanctum he penned the following: She's the pride of the town, the star of the West, the mother of invention and a jewel of rare brilliancy. She drew the picture of an iceberg on the blackboard. It was so natural that the editor was frozen solid. With rare presence of mind she seized a crayon and drew a fireplace on the other side of the room. This prompt action saved the school, but many of the pupils caught cold from the sudden change.

A GOOD TIME.

On Wednesday afternoon Miss Daisy Green was pleasantly surprised at the Springs hotel by a large number of little girls who reminded her that it was her twelfth birthday anniversary. Miss Daisy and her mother, Mrs. John Green of Crowley, Louisiana, are here visiting S. P. Parich and family at the Springs. The following little folks were present at the "surprise": Maude Norton, Flossie Tuttle, Mary Hileman, Bessie Dent, Lottie Urick, Eliza Edmisten, Anna Webb, Hazel Hawks, Jennie Hawks, Myrtle Parich, Georgia Koontz, Mary Crowell, Margie Smith, Irene Dent, Grace Perkins, Audrey Smith, Ruby Covey, Venia Stryker, Mazie Shriner, Maude Shriner, Grace Doty, May McDonald, Ethel Crowell, Esther Crowell, Ruth Perkins, Edith Fetterman, Marguerite Opperman, Jessie Donaldson, Tinie Donaldson, Edna Hemstreet, Florence Ryan, Carrie Perkins.

Elegant refreshments were served in the spacious dining room of the Springs and the afternoon was happily spent in the enjoyment of the many games incident to childhood, interspersed with music.

A DAY'S OUTING.

At Oswego, Kansas, on Thursday, August 25, occasion of Knights of Pythias picnic. Grounds seven blocks north of city on the beautiful Neosho. A small steambot—innumerable small boats—free to visitors—excellent fishing. Cool grounds, shady and comfortable; chiggerless and free from mosquitoes. Base ball game in afternoon between Weir City Browns and Oswego. Hop it open house at night. Bands of music. Weir City, Pittsburg, Girard, Frontenac and Scammon come on special trains 2000 strong. Reduced rates on M. K. & T. and Frisco railways. Oswego extends a cordial invitation to every Knight, his family and friends to attend—this will be one day in your whole life.

ENCOURAGING OUTLOOK.

Prospecting on the land under lease by the Quappaw Mining and Milling Company south and southeast of this city goes right along and the dirt being taken out of dozens of shaft encourages the lease holders in the belief that the land is a bonanza. Superintendent A. W. Abrams is kept busy sub-leasing both large and small tracts of the land, and before many weeks a good, healthy mining camp is going to spring up down there. Just as we go to press we are told that a good body of jack has been struck on this land at a depth of 50 feet. Full particulars not obtainable now. Columbus has voted $50,000 in bonds for the purpose of buying the water works plant of that city.
